

Prof. Vibeke Vindelov, University of Copenhagen trains the Wangari Maathai Institute STAKE project team and other Stakeholders on Reflexive Mediation. Photo credit, Ms. Kong'ani

Prof. Vibeke Vindelov, University of Copenhagen & the Principal Coordinate, STAKE project and Prof. Jens Emborg, University of Copenhagen conducts a three days intensive course in reflexive mediation for the STAKE team and other stakeholders. Prof Vibeke is a specialist in reflex mediation and has been involved in several mediation sessions globally. The training was held the Luke Hotel, Thika Road, Nairobi between February 28, 2017 to March 2, 2017. The participants were drawn from WMI affiliates, Community Forest Association (CFA), post graduate students and Natural resources Management (NRM) specialists. On completion they were awarded certificates in Reflexive mediation equivalent to 5ECTS. The training was supported by DANIDA through the STAKE project.

From left, P. Thiong'o, A. Karanja, Dr. R. Kweyu, Ms. L.S. Kong'ani, Ms. Kimiti, Mr. Kagombe, Mr. S. Kamau, L. Muchugu, Dr. J. Mutune, E. Mbogo, S. Gikonyo, Prof. J. Emborg, C. Mwangi, Prof. V. Vindelov, Prof. R.G. Wahome, Dr. T. Thenya after mediation reflexive training

By Lilian Namuma Sarah Kong'ani